

We are committed to modernizing and democratizing certain practices, particularly in medicine. aesthetics. Hapiderm is a new concept offering dedicated facial treatments combining the precision of science and the art of beauty for natural results with a personalized approach.

This advert is aimed at both men and women.

As part of the development of our studio in the center of Geneva, hapiderm is looking for a :

AESTHETIC PHYSICIAN (M/F) - 50% to 100%

Your profile:

- Swiss FMH or European doctor with experience in aesthetic medicine.
- You have the right to practice in the canton of Geneva or you meet all the criteria for obtaining a cantonal right to practice.
- Passionate about aesthetic medicine, you are motivated to acquire new knowledge and discover new technologies and practices in the field.
- Reliable and autonomous, you have good organizational skills.
- You have a facility for working with multidisciplinary teams in a respectful and caring manner.
- You are fluent in French and English.

We offer you :

- The opportunity to join a dynamic, committed and experienced multidisciplinary team, in a pleasant working environment, at an interesting time in the implementation of many and varied projects.
- An activity that promotes your professional development and enhances your know-how and skills.
- Ongoing training provided by leading doctors and the top brands in the injectables field.
- Opportunities for rapid development and concrete involvement in the evolution of projects
- Attractive, flexible working conditions.
- Latest-generation work tools.

Start date: To be agreed

Type of contract: Open-ended contract, details to be discussed at interview

Please send your complete application (CV, covering letter, copies of diplomas, letters of recommendation and work certificates) to the following email address: direction@hapiderm.com